Harlem, NY – (February 24, 2022) – The Apollo’s -annual Africa Now! festival returns this April, headlined by Grammy-nominated, East African jazz vocalist Somi—celebrating the launch of her forthcoming album that honors the late South African singer-songwriter and civil rights activist Miriam Makeba. Set to debut on March 4, marking what would have been Makeba’s 90th birthday, Zenzile: The Reimagination of Miriam Makeba is an album accompanying Somi’s musical production Dreaming Zenzile, featuring Somi in the role of Makeba, an artist whose music criticized apartheid, placing her at the forefront of political activism. Somi will be joined by award-winning jazz singer Dianne Reeves, South African musician and vocalist Thandiswa Mazwai, and composer and vocalist Msaki.

Music and entertainment from the continent continues to drive trends across all facets of culture around the globe. The Apollo's Africa Now! Festival returns for its eighth year to celebrate the best cultural innovators from the African Diaspora. This year's festival takes place from March 4 through March 19.

"We're thrilled to welcome back our Africa Now! celebration and to continue honoring and presenting contemporary art from the African diaspora," said Kamilah Forbes, the Apollo's Executive Producer. "Over the past eight decades the Apollo has amplified Black voices and used its platforms to create an intersection of art and activism, so having Somi, a contemporary artist and activist, perform new music from her upcoming album that honors the late Miriam Makeba, a respected musical and activist icon of the 1960s, is exactly the kind of artistic conversation and experimentation that the Apollo champions."

Somi was closely mentored by the legendary trumpet player Hugh Masekela, who was a longtime collaborator to Miriam Makeba. Makeba and Masekela were both prominent figures in African jazz music and activism in South Africa and around the world, acclaimed for their musical talents and popular songs that were critical of apartheid. Their visibility earned them monikers such as "Mama Africa" and "the Father of African Jazz." Both Makeba and Masekela performed several times at the Apollo in the 1960s, sometimes together and often with other jazz artists and musicians, including John Coltrane and Machito and His Afro Jazz Band in an ensemble concert. Somi's musical production Dreaming Zenzile made its world premiere at The Repertory Theatre of St. Louis in 2021 and is touring in theaters across the country ahead of its Off-Broadway debut at New York Theatre Workshop in Summer 2022.

In addition to Somi's one night only performance, the festival kicks off on March 4 with Apollo Comedy Club featuring digital host and comedian Akintunde, as seen on Comedy Central Alfred Kainga, founder of Feel the News Marcela Onyango, and comedian and actor Yedoye Travis with music by DJ Qool Marv. The festival also includes an Apollo Music Café performance featuring Congolese dancer, singer, and multi-instrumentalist Nkumu Katalay and DJ YB on March 5, a screening and post-film discussion of Apollo Film: ImageNation's Cocktails and Sol Cinema – Queen of Glory, by director Nana Mensah (Netflix's "The Chair") who vividly captures the Ghanaian-American experience of being caught between two worlds in her film on March 10, and a virtual Apollo Livewire discussion curated by Ethnomusicologist Fredara Hadley in dialogue with contemporary artists about some of the legendary artists and historic performances by artists from the continent on March 15. The festival culminates on March 19 with Somi and special guests Dianne Reeves, Thandiswa Mazwai, and Msaki.

Looking ahead to 2022, the Apollo will offer a dynamic line-up of free and ticketed programs in person at the Apollo's historic theater and online on the Apollo Digital Stage. Highlights include the long-anticipated return of the Amateur Night at the Apollo competition on Wednesday, February 16 at 7:30pm EST and on select Wednesdays thereafter; Apollo Master Artist-in-Residence Ta-Nehisi Coates and The Roots' Tariq "Black Thought" Trotter, in conversation; the Lyricist Lounge 30th Anniversary Concert featuring hip-hop trailblazer KRS-1 and others to be announced; the premiere of The Gathering: A Collective Ring Shout, co-presented by the American Composers Orchestra and the Apollo and co-curated by National Black Theatre, and more.
