MEDIA ADVISORY

Apollo Film Presents
ImageNation's Cocktails and Sol Cinema:
It's Different In Chicago

Film screening to be followed by a conversation with curator Moikgantsi Kgama of ImageNation and filmmaker David Weathersby

WHAT: On Tuesday, May 26 at 7:00pm ET, the Apollo Theater and ImageNation presents a film screening of It's Different In Chicago as part of ImageNation's Cocktails and Sol Cinema on the Apollo's Soundstage. The film highlights the city, known by many as the birthplace of house music as well as an incubator for hip-hop hitmakers. It's Different In Chicago tells the story of how these music genres and the cultures around their communities have complemented and competed with each other, leading to deep revelations about the different segments within the Black community of Chicago.

This homegrown ode to the Chicago music scene will be preceded by a cocktail reception featuring DJ Stormin Norman, and followed by a discussion between curator Moikgantsi Kgama of ImageNation and filmmaker David Weathersby.

WHERE: Apollo's Soundstage (253 W 125th St, New York, NY 10027)

WHEN: May 26. Reception: 6:00pm ET. Film Screening: 7:00pm ET.

TICKETS: $25 (includes one free cocktail and light bites). For more information visit www.ApolloTheater.org.

ABOUT THE APOLLO THEATER

The legendary Apollo Theater—the soul of American culture—plays a vital role in cultivating emerging artists and launching legends. Since its founding, the Apollo has served as a center of innovation and a creative catalyst for Harlem, the city of New York, and the world. With music at its core, the Apollo's programming extends to dance, theater, spoken word, and more. This includes the world premiere of the theatrical adaptation of Ta-Nehisi Coates's Between the World and Me and the New York premiere of the opera We Shall Not Be Moved; special programs such as the blockbuster concert Bruno Mars Live at the Apollo; 100: The Apollo Celebrates Ella; and the annual Africa Now! Festival. The non-profit Apollo Theater is a performing arts presenter, commissioner, and collaborator that also produces festivals, large-scale dance and musical works organized around a set of core initiatives that celebrate and extend the Apollo's legacy through a contemporary lens, including the Women of the World (WOW) Festival as well as other multidisciplinary collaborations with partner organizations. Since introducing the first Amateur Night contests in 1934, the Apollo has served as a testing ground for new artists working across a variety of art forms and has ushered in the emergence of many new musical genres—including jazz, swing, bebop, R&B, gospel, blues, soul, and hip-hop. Among the countless legendary performers who launched their careers at the Apollo are Ella Fitzgerald, Sarah Vaughan, Billie Holiday, James Brown, Stevie Wonder, Gladys Knight, Luther Vandross, H.E.R., D'Angelo, Lauryn Hill, Machine Gun Kelly, and Miri Ben Ari; and the Apollo's forward-looking artistic vision continues to build on this legacy.
